Rental and Occupancy Criteria Guideline

This community uses a statistically sound credit scoring system to evaluate your consumer credit report. Credit scoring is based on real data and statistics so all applicants are treated objectively. Your credit report contains information about you and your credit experiences including your bill-paying history, the number and type of accounts you have, late payments, collection actions, outstanding debt, rental history, the number and type of accounts. Using a statistical program, your information is compared to the credit performance of other applicants with similar profiles which allows us to predict how likely it is that you will pay your rent on time. Our credit service provider also checks related data sources which include FBI and U.S. Treasury lists of individuals wanted for direct involvement or support of terrorist activities. Bases on your credit score and related data source information, your information, your application will either be accepted, receive a low acceptance or be declined. If your application is denied or accepted with conditions, you will be given the name, address, and telephone number of the consumer reporting agencies, which provide your consumer information to us:
